

le d'hote at Belle Vue —between 30 and 40 persons. jntly amusing.
Dinner excellent — frogs — pat& de tiles—magnificent! Sublime!

To Sarah Disraeli.

COLOGNE,

Saturday, Aug.

14.

SA, are in a city in which there are so many churches to that I am afraid we shall never get out of it. We at Cologne last night. I wrote to you last from
s. . . . On Saturday we left Brussels for Waterloo, I over the field of battle and the adjoining country by orter himself, a jolly antique.
He harangued in a
> of Dutch, Flemish, French, and English — very rich — f, a kind of Belle Alliance lingo, most likely in compli-
) the place. We dined at Genappe most admirably;
bye, we hired a carriage at Brussels.
It is a complete ig carriage left behind by a Hamburg gentleman at le Vue, perhaps for his bill. We got to Namur by 3k at night. At G-enappe the country rises and the about 7 leagues is through a bold